South Coast ILWU Federal Credit Union Annual Privacy Policy Statement

South Coast ILWU Federal Credit Union is required by law to furnish you with this notice outlining our Privacy Policy. We are committed to providing you with financial products and services you request, or others the credit union makes available to our membership. Now as always, the protection, security and confidentiality of our member's information is of the highest priority.

Information We Collect

- Information from you on applications or other forms, including verification of employment history and/or credit history. This information may be used to qualify you for a loan, open a share draft account, or apply for a debit card.
- Information from you to open and administer your accounts. We ask for personally identifying information to protect your accounts from fraud.
- When opening an account that pays interest we are required by the Internal Revenue Service to obtain your social security number.
- Information about your transactions with us.
- Information from consumer reporting agencies.

Non-public Information We Share

- Only that information necessary to perform services and process transactions on your behalf at your request.
- Information required by a government agency.
- Our credit union does not share non-public personal information of our current or former members except as permitted by law.

Confidentiality

- Our credit union maintains strict security controls to ensure that your information is safeguarded.
- Our credit union uses the services of processors which adhere to strict confidentiality standards.
- We restrict access to non-public personal information about you to those employees who need to know the information to provide products and services to you. All employees and volunteers of the credit union sign confidentiality agreements.
- Our credit union does not sell your non-public personal information to third parties.

As a member of our credit union you have the right to review your information for accuracy and request changes to assure that your records are accurate. If we amend this policy in the future, we will notify you of the changes as required by law.

If you have questions concerning this privacy notice, please call us at (541)756-5746 or toll-free at 1-877-558-4220.
